Volunteer

Our church is the perfect place for you to utilize your unique talents for the greater good.

We focus on spreading God's love and assisting our global neighbors through the ELCA and St. John's Lutheran Church. Intrigued? We'll guide you towards volunteer opportunities that match your passion, gifts, and schedule. Discover these opportunities by scanning the QR code or visiting stjohnsdsm.org.

WELCOME TO ST. JOHN'S LUTHERAN CHURCH!

As you exit the sanctuary, you will find Guides stationed at each exit with offering plates in case you would like to leave your weekly offering. Additionally, we kindly request you to complete a Worship Attendance Card that can be found in the racks in the pew and place it in the offering plate. If you happen to be a guest, filling out a card would help us know how to offer support as you learn more about the St. John's community.

READINGS: Acts 10:44-48, Psalm 98, 1 John 5:1-6, John 15:9-17

This Sunday's image of the life the risen Christ shares with us is the image of friendship. We are called to serve others as Jesus came to serve; but for John's gospel, the image of servanthood is too hierarchical, too distant, to capture the essence of life with Christ. Friendship captures the love, the joy, the deep mutuality of the relationship into which Christ invites us. The Greeks believed that true friends are willing to die for each other. This is the mutual love of Christian community commanded by Christ and enabled by the Spirit.

ABOUT THE COVER ART: "John 15:12. Love One Another" by Mark Lawrence, 2021

Christian modern art by Mark Lawrence is inspired by Bible verses that God has given to encourage, strengthen, and teach us about who we are in Jesus Christ. "This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you." (John 15:12).

Thanksgiving For Baptism

All may make the sign of the cross, the sign that is marked at baptism, as the presiding minister begins.

P: Blessed be the holy Trinity, † one God,
the wellspring of grace,
our Easter and our joy.

C: Amen.

P: Look, here is water!

C: Here is our water of life! Alleluia!

P: Immersed in the promises of baptism,
let us give thanks for what God has done for us.

We give you thanks, O God, for in the beginning your voice thundered over the deep and water became the essence of life.

Adam and Eve beheld Eden's verdant rivers.

The ark carried your creation through the flood into a new day.

Miriam led the dancing as your people passed through the sea into freedom's land.

In a desert pool the Ethiopian official entered your boundless baptismal life.

Look, here is water!

C: Here is our water of life! Alleluia!

P: At the river your beloved Son was baptized by John and anointed with the Holy Spirit.

By the baptism of Jesus' death and resurrection
you opened the floodgates of your reconciling love, freeing us to live as Easter people.

We rejoice with glad hearts,
giving all honor and praise to you,
through the risen Christ, our source of living water,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit, now and forever.

C: Amen.

P: Look, here is water!

C: Here is our water of life! Alleluia!

The assembly turns to face the processional cross.

P: O God, you have prepared for those who love you joys beyond understanding. Pour into our hearts such love for you that, loving you above all things, we may obtain your promises, which exceed all we can desire; through Jesus Christ, your Son and our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C: Amen.
